Thoughts from a slipped Gear.....

Here we are with a new year starting. Like a few people I do reflect on the past some; however, I believe that looking to the future is a lot more fun. There is the hint of mystery in the future, because we do not know what will really happen. There is a little anxiety that comes with the "not knowing" and that concerns many. I like change and I welcome tomorrow, but I also enjoy the security of traditions.

We have two, not so new Labrador puppies and a mini-pit all about the same age. Now, they alone, have caused a lot of change in our household. We have two eaten couches, no area rugs that can be left on the floors. They have demolished about 8 dish towels which they have used for dental floss. None of this happens while we are home; but as most of you have figured out, we travel for business and are often gone for weeks at a time. Part of the story is the fact everyone we talked to seemed to know this is the pattern with Labs, but they tell you what great dogs they are after they turn 3, they don't tell you this until after you get the puppies. These pups and Billy are one of the things that have forced me to accept change. I have become an expert with duct tape and a stapler. I have learned not to keep anything on the floor and to keep all the doors closed to non- active rooms. This was part of my un-seen future. Like little children, they are so precious when they are sleeping or when they want your attention so that you decide that you have to keep them no matter what.

Our club is a lot like my puppies, you (the members) need attention often or you will lose interest. Our club is as much a social club as it is a car club. With approaching age, it becomes harder to work on the cars or to keep them in good running shape for some, but you still want to participate, so we have eased some of the requirements. (ex: touring with the modern cars). We have picked up new members who bring with them the enthusiasm we need to spark the flames of interest. Marlene has a sweet surprised up her sleeve for everyone. We have found a new bowling alley to try for the Frost Bowl. We will repeat the Movie night at the Palace coming up very soon. There is some interest in having a "Wine and Painting a car on canvas" night. I am hoping that someone will step up and organize another cruise and a lunch stop, since everyone loves to eat; these cruises are always a big hit. There is a lot of Texas to see and a lot that we have not traveled on. For tradition we will all get together to pull off another Swap Meet in 2019, we have great leadership with Doyle and Mike for that Join us at Kirby's and enjoy the theme of the month. Don't forget Denny's in New Braunfels and make yourself known to new members and those who might be interested in joining us. Keep posted on what is on our schedule; invite new people that you meet and ask them to come along on any of our events. That is how Billy and I joined. Look around in your area and find something intriguing to show off to our members. It is time to make the future happen for us before any of it becomes history.

Just more thoughts from a slipped gear.....

December 8, 2018 NBACC Minutes

The club president, Sherry Dawson called the December NBACC meeting to order. A motion was made to accept the November minutes and was approved by Charlie Jacobs and second by Sergei Ceyanes. Marcia Hodgkins gave the treasurer's report.

Care Committee

Cindy Gable reported that Sheri Haynes had fallen and broken her back. Quentin Rance has had knee surgery.

Swap Meet

Doyle Marshall reported that there were three spaces left for vendors at the Swap Meet. Doyle announced that the next swap meet committee meeting would be held on December 13th at GG's restaurant in Marion Texas at 6:30. Doyle urged everyone to get a handful of flyers to pass out and leave at businesses. They are already getting inquiries on the 2020 Swap Meet. It was requested that everyone please sign up on the work sheets to participate in this year's swap meet.

Old Business

Everyone that went out to the Kingsbury Aerodrome experienced wet and muddy conditions but it did clear off that afternoon. We had about 8 or 10 cars at the event. There were not many of the members at Wassailfest this year because the weather was miserable.

New Business

Sherry Dawson showed her appreciation to all the officers and the board of directors for their service for this past year by presenting them with gifts. Chalmers Gable reported that no one called him with interest in holding an office in the club to replace our current officers. He asked for nominations from the floor and there was only one nomination and that was Martha Greenlaw for the office of treasurer. Billy Dawson made the nomination and was seconded by Tom Price. It was voted on and accepted. All of the other officers and board members were approved by acclimation.

All the folks that came early to the Christmas Party to help set up and decorate were applauded for their service.

On January 19th we have our annual Snow Bowl at the Hill Country Lanes off of IH 35. It is located where the rest area was between New Braunfels and Schertz on the north side of the Highway. It is reasonable and we all had a great time last year. This year we are only going to bowl 2 games and not 3 like last year. It will cost $4.50 per game and $3.50 for shoes. Sherry Dawson will need a head count ASAP so she can be sure to have enough lanes reserved. The meeting time will be at 5:30pm.

Don't forget, the second Friday of January at Kirby's in Seguin is "wear the colors of your favorite bird" night.

The meeting was adjourned.
